

Project Title	USAID Public Affairs Associates
Project Summary	Join USAID's public affairs apparatus! Explore and express the impact of American assistance on lives and livelihoods worldwide!
Country	United States

Project Description

Collaborate with USAID's domestic and field based communicators to initiate, advance and/or deliver communication products, mini-projects and campaigns across a range of traditional and new media channels. Conduct research, create and amplify content. Mobilize your skills in multiple media formats, analyze and apply best practices to inform communications training and ensure Agency uptake of trending techniques, tactics, and high-impact messaging approaches.

This internship is for self-motivated eInterns with concrete research, written, visual and/or new media skills, proven teamwork ability, and a passion for development. We seek entrepreneurial young professionals capable of both executing and leading independent efforts (and occasionally small teams), multi-tasking, and jumping in with both feet, at times with limited direction. In exchange we offer the opportunity to explore and express the impact of assistance from the American people on lives and livelihoods worldwide.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Editing and proofreading

Graphic design

Research

Social media management

Storytelling/blogging/vlogging

Videography

Additional Information

This internship offers experienced and aspiring public affairs and strategic communications practitioners an opportunity to expand their portfolio to international affairs, curriculum design and build practical experience with writing/editing for foreign and domestic publics.

Language Requirements

None